Departing from the rut which the daily papers were obliged to pursue, it furnished its readers with a choice selection of original sketches, many of them handsomely illustrated. The issue was on the whole exceedingly creditable to the Times, and its management is to be heartily congratulated upon the success of their efforts.

Success of their efforts.

—Suit for divorce was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by Alma against R. S. Smith. They were married in December, 1881, and the complainant states that she has endeavored to aid in the support of the family by clerking in a dry goods store and had run a green grocery on upper Main street, that her husband abuses her and not only fails to support himself, but threatens to break up her business. An injunction was issued.

—Emil Longwert entered suit

-Emil Longwert entered suit against Julia A. Waldran in the Circuit Court yesterday for $500 damages. The parties live in the tenement at No. 105 Market street and Mrs. Waldran owns a savage Newfoundland dog with a fondness for Mr. Longwert's flesh. The latter had two fingers broken in a struggle with two fingers broken in a struggle with the brute, which invaded his yard, not long since, and has been unable to do any work; hence the suit.

any work; hence the suit.

—In the Police Court yesterday morning G. Haas, a South Memphis store keeper, was arraigned for assaulting a negro named Frank Watson with a pistol. The proof showed that Watson saved Haas's boy from drowning and was dissatisfied with the half dollar his father gave him for his trouble. Watson expressed his dissatisfaction with the smallness of his reward in the most vigorous way, and Hass drew a pistol on him. Hass was fined $25.

—President Surprise received a let-

-President Surprise received a letter yesterday asking him to act as one of the judges at the great Springfield bicycle races, to be inaugurated next Tuesday and continue four days. He has not yet signified his acceptance, but the temptation is hard to resist. The Springfield Club has several hundred members, a fine stone club house and race track of its own and is one of the vest floorishing arrangations. of the most flourishing organizations of its kind in the country. Its annual tournaments attract from 10,000 to 12,-000 spectators daily, and the champion riders of the world compete for the

-"The present Courthouse is a regular vampire,,' said Chairman Slaughter, of the County Court, yes-terday. "It keeps the county treas-ury sucked dry all the time. In the first place, the building cost $150,000, and $30 000 was expended at once to put it in proper shape for a court-house. Since that time at least $100,-000 have been spent in repairs. There is hardly a month that we do not have is hardly a month that we do not have to pay a big plumber's bill, then the roof gets to leaking or the walls need fixing up, or something has to be done. The block is 148 feet square, and with the building ought to be worth $75,000. My belief is we ought to sell it and build a Courthouse on the bluff, just north of the Custom the bluff, just north of the Custom

OF SEPTEMBER.

We Fall in Line for the First Fall Month.

THE SUMMER HAS ENDED.

Some Seasonable Suggestions for Memphis Citizens.

The Summer, according to the Almanac, has ended, and it is time now to think of something else than how to escape the summer heat. Fall, with its change of climate and change of clothing, is coming.

For the change of clothing which is now necessary, the Misfit Clothing Parlors, No. 262 Second street, has long been preparing. We have not been idle during the hot months, and the result of our activity is that we are now better able than ever to offer great bargains to our customers. Our field has been extended and we will be able to offer larger assortments and still lower prices.

The Misfit Clothing Parlors are now offering a fine fall stock. It you need Clothing be sure to call and inspect it. You may not need an entire suit. A coat or a pair of pants may be necessary to piece out your fall attire. Well, we have prepared for just such emergencies. We have New Fall Suits,

Handsome Dress Suits, Good Every Day Suits,

Coats and Vests, A Fine Line of Pants,

Fants for Dress or Work All our Clothing is offered at prices which do not represent the actual first cost of the goods. By buying from us you get the finest Clothing in the world for much less than its actual value.
